Aims and Outcomes

Aims	The module is designed to provide a rigorous foundation for the student's future development as instrumental or vocal performers. It is designed to provide students with a range of vocal or instrumental skills, and the ability to reinforce these skills through disciplined regular practice. The module further aims to develop general performance-related skills such as study/practice, preparation and presentation skills. It provides an opportunity to build technical skills and utilise these in a performance setting. The module also aims to foster a broad understanding of a range of performance related subjects including style, interpretation, and improvisation.
