Module Content

Outline Syllabus	1. Introduction to Theory2. Block 1 (2 weeks) – the Rational Actor 3. Block 2 (3 weeks) – the Predetermined Actor 4. Block 3 (4 weeks) – the Victimised Actor
Module Overview	This module will begin to form your theoretical and conceptual foundation in Criminology. It will do so by charting some of the key perspectives within the discipline of Criminology and examining the emergence and contours of Critical Criminologies. An appreciation of these, often competing, versions of what Criminology is or should be, and the policy implications which follow, highlight the centrality of theory because ideas have consequences. This module will introduce you to the theoretical pathway of the discipline of Criminology, its relevant conceptual language, the key thinkers involved, and important seminal texts.
