Aims

The module aims to continue to enhance the students' understanding of the practical aspect of physical education with particular reference to tennis and aerobics, as well as football as the core component. Upon completion of this module, students will continue to further develop knowledge of the how to perform skills and actions. They will not only be able to demonstrate these skills but teach others. This is in line with the physical education curriculum in China and the requirements of the Ministry of Education.

Learning Outcomes

After completing the module the student should be able to:

- 1 Describe key components of how to perform a range of basic skills related to various sports including football, tennis, and aerobics in line with the requirements of the MoE in China for physical education.
- 2 Physically perform a range of basic skills related to a good level from various sports including football, tennis, and aerobics in line with the requirements of the MoE in China for physical education.

Learning Outcomes of Assessments

The assessment item list is assessed via the learning outcomes listed:

Practice - Football	1	2
Practice - Tennis	1	2
Practice - Aerobics	1	2

Outline Syllabus

Teaching and learning methods will predominantly include practical sessions (indoor and outdoor). The taught component of the module explores a range of sports related skills. practicing sport and physical education. Specific examples of the sports to be explored include:

- 1. Football - Advanced skills including attacking, defending goalkeeping, and set pieces (corner, free kick, penalties) as well as a further knowledge of the rules of the game (including refereeing).*
- 2. Tennis- Basic skills such as those required to deliver physical education (in line with the MoE) such as serving (short and long), shots (forehand and backhand) and drop shots. As well as a basic understanding of the rules of the game*
- 3. Aerobics - Basic skills such as those required to deliver physical education (in line with the MoE) such as steps, lunges and knees.*

Learning Activities

Students are expected to attend time-tabled lectures and are encouraged to utilise the available directed learning/private study time to get advice from module staff and/or conduct essential reading. During the practical sessions they are expected to engage with and contribute to the learning environment through discussion and practice (in various physical education contexts). Some of the teaching sessions will contain group work and practical activities where students will be required to communicate and work as a team with others to enhance their own learning. Students should complete any required and recommended reading to widen their knowledge and understanding. Students will be required to evidence this during their practical assessments and any teaching they may conduct.

Notes

This module is designed to introduce students to a number of skills and sports in physical education. The module will be evaluated by the completion of appropriate assessment tasks. This module will incorporate support strategies in an attempt to ensure student progression. This will include feed forward and feedback on assessment and personal tutorial support.
