Aims

The aim of this module is to teach students the complexity of cross border flows of capital, goods, ideas, and people that has rapidly transformed the human society due to globalisation. Globalisation has affected the autonomy of nation-states and have eroded the power of national governments. Hence, this module intends to examine not only the causes and mechanisms of this process, but also assesses its social, economic, and political impacts.

Learning Outcomes

After completing the module the student should be able to:

- 1 Identify the concepts of globalisation and economic governance.
- 2 Describe the nature and context of global trade and reactions to it.
- 3 Assess the global governance of finance.
- 4 Explain the concepts of governing development, crisis and change in global economic governance.
