Aims and Outcomes

Aims	To teach transferrable group-working skills. To encourage independent learning. To teach transferable project management skills.

After completing the module the student should be able to:

Learning Outcomes

Code	Number	Description
MLO1	1	Operate effectively within a group environment.
MLO2	2	Demonstrate the ability to self-organise, plan and execute an historical research presentation.
MLO3	3	To identify and reflect upon the following aspects of self-awareness in respect of personal development and career planning: strengths and weaknesses, motivations and values, ability to work with others.

Module Content

Outline Syllabus	Exploring History gives students the chance to choose a staff-assigned historical research project and, working in groups, research the material and transfer it into a public presentation, which will be exhibited at the end of the year. Although each group will work under the supervision of a Project Manager – a staff member with expertise and interest in the content of the project – the focus in this module will be on encouraging independent learning and the crucial transferable skills of group working. This will be tested via a group presentation and the final project presentation at the exhibition, consisting of the exhibit and a written exhibit guidebook.
Module Overview
Additional Information	Attached to this module will be the Future Focus programme, which will issue a short written reflective assessment for students
