Aims

This module aims to help you develop a fundamental and pragmatic understanding of the necessary skills required to perform in front of the camera, as well as understanding the basics of shooting and editing techniques

Learning Outcomes

After completing the module the student should be able to:

- LO1 Apply the fundamental principles of film technique, theory, and etiquette.
LO2 Apply acting technique, such that it incorporates physical and vocal scale appropriate to camera and microphone techniques

Learning Outcomes of Assessments

The assessment item list is assessed via the learning outcomes listed:

Video Blog	LO1
Mediated Performance	LO2

Outline Syllabus

Indicative modular content covers techniques for hitting your mark, framing, types of shot, acting scale, speaking to someone off camera and basic editing for continuity. You will participate in practical exercises designed to help you acquire these skills, and also reflect upon and analyse your practice. You will have an opportunity to play and experiment with mediated performance in creating short vignettes. In addition, through this module, you will also gain an understanding of, and learn to apply, specific codes of practice designed for the classroom, rehearsal, and performance. You are expected to demonstrate an awareness and commitment to professional codes of practice.
