After completing the module the student should be able to:

Learning Outcomes

Code	Number	Description
MLO1	1	Effectively apply specialist understanding of performance in the creation of original script;
MLO2	2	Utilise workshop development as an effective tool in script development;

Module Content

Outline Syllabus	The early part of the module will explore aspects of story structure and play reading as well as offer some models of practice for script development. From the outset students will be expected to bring in their own original script work/performance text and share it with the class. The further delivery of the module is based on the specific developmental needs and interests of the group in developing their work for portfolio.
Module Overview	This module offers you the opportunity to develop original script work through workshop application of performance and, where appropriate, directing skills. You will explore a range of texts for their performance potential alongside enhancing your understanding of dramaturgy and story structure.
Additional Information	Students are expected to serve as actors for each other for script readings/workshops.
