Outline Syllabus

This module will facilitate the learning process by enabling students to put the theory gained in second year modules into practice. A suitable work derived project will be simulated to provide the vehicle for this purpose to develop skills in relation to design interpretation, cost and financial control, project management and planning and construction contracts.. In addition students will develop research skills to prepare them to undertake a large research project.

Learning Activities

The central theme of the module is the production of a suitable work derived project and it is supported by the other modules within the second year programme. Group work is a key theme of the module; the intention being to simulate the experience of the work place and work place activity, endorsed and approved by the involvement of employers and stakeholders as relevant to the workplace generally. Key skills are developed through lectures, seminars, individual and group presentations and the use of e-portfolio to facilitate personal development planning. Research skills will be developed using lectures and workshops.

Notes

This module has been developed to encapsulate the spirit of WoW and PDP. A high level of industrial input will be utilised in the development of the project and guest lecturers brought in wherever possible. PDP will be encapsulated within this module as transferable skill development alongside subject specific skills will be developed.
