Aims and Outcomes

Aims	This module introduces students to the key themes and debates in modern French history. Through the course of a series of workshops, students will have the opportunity to study key moments in the history of modern France and explore the recurring themes of 'crisis' and 'renewal' in modern and contemporary French history. Students will have the opportunity to draw upon a wide range of source materials and to analyse the history of modern France through a variety of historical approaches. A key part of the module will be a fieldwork trip to France.
