Module Overview

Additional Information

This module centres on guest talks from practitioners working in a range of settings. These are supported by lectures to provide academic context. The latter will help students to reflect on the extent to which criminological theories, concepts and research are relevant in a practice-based setting. The module also explores wider discussions about the production and application of criminological knowledge. The module equips students with a broad awareness of policy and practice in criminal justice, as well as offering opportunities to engage with practitioners and consider career options.
