Module Overview

This module provides an opportunity for you to acquire knowledge and skills relevant to advising clients being detained at a police station, to prepare for trial and sentence, and to advocate on behalf of persons at stages in the criminal justice process. The module is intended primarily for students wishing to pursue a professional legal qualification following graduation.

Additional Information

The module is intended primarily for students wishing to pursue a professional legal qualification following graduation. It will also be validated as a stand-alone CPD module enabling students who did not take the option during their degree programme to gain the underpinning knowledge required for the Solicitors Qualifying Examination. The CPD will align with the elective module for annual monitoring and external examining purposes.
