

Liverpool John Moores University

Title: GLOBALISATION AND DEVELOPMENT
Status: Definitive
Code: 5305NATSCI (121169)
Version Start Date: 01-08-2021

Owning School/Faculty: Biological and Environmental Sciences
Teaching School/Faculty: Biological and Environmental Sciences

Team	Leader
Celine Germond-Duret	Y
Sarah Percival
Neil Simcock
Colm Bowe
Graham Sherwood

Academic Level: FHEQ5
Credit Value: 20
Total Delivered Hours: 50
Total Learning Hours: 200
Private Study: 150

Delivery Options

Course typically offered: Semester 1

Component	Contact Hours
Lecture	20
Off Site	16
Workshop	14

Grading Basis: 40 %

Assessment Details

Category	Short Description	Description	Weighting (%)	Exam Duration
Test	Canvas	Canvas test (2 hours)	50
Report	Case Study	Case Study (field) report	50

Aims

*To critically assess the concept, theories and implementation of Development
To examine the phenomena of Globalisation (cultural, economic and political)* dimensions).

To highlight, via examination of specific topics and localities, the variable impact of globalisation on people and their environment and to evaluate the response to global processes at local and regional level.

Learning Outcomes

After completing the module the student should be able to:

- 1 Analyse and assess the multifaceted phenomenon of development and globalisation from different perspectives
- 2 Evaluate case study material in relation to global processes
- 3 Explain and evaluate the impact and response to globalisation at different scales

Learning Outcomes of Assessments

The assessment item list is assessed via the learning outcomes listed:

Canvas Test	1
Case Study (field) report	2	3

Outline Syllabus

Geography of Development: Evolving nature of the Development concept, Measuring Development, Development theories, Development assistance, Geographies of inequalities. The global marketplace: world trade, multinationals, interdependencies, protectionism versus free trade, commodity trading, Fairtrade, food sovereignty. Colonialism, Post-Colonialism and Neo-Colonialism; Legacies of the slave trade, modern slavery.

Globalisation's impacts: geoeconomic, geopolitical, social issues, cultural globalisation (including consumption, cultural standardisation) and environmental concerns.

Response and resistance to globalisation. International response to global development issues; Globalism versus Localism; Anti-globalisation movements.

Case study research on selected themes such as tourism and globalisation, fashion and consumption, globalised cities.

Learning Activities

Lectures, workshops, fieldwork with private study.

Notes

The processes of development and globalisation are explored. Research will be conducted on selected case studies to highlight local and/or regional responses to global processes and the linkages between these different scales. Formative feedback is provided through interactive technologies and directed group exercises.