Outline Syllabus

Social policy for inclusiveness, and its historical context alongside current legislation will underpin this module. Students debate the issue of integration and inclusiveness. Changes in terminology and the evolution of language in relation to inclusive practice is also discussed. Supporting children and young people's individual needs including children with English as an additional language or those with additional health or educational needs.

Learning Activities

Students will participate in lectures, workshops, critical discussions & reflections, small group tutorials and work based activities. Students will carry out an initial inclusiveness audit in the setting to be used as a reflective tool.

Notes

The module allows students to reflect critically and sensitively on workplace practice and ethos as well as their own personal attitudes and professional practice surrounding inclusion. The module is designed to recognise the evolving nature of the concept of inclusion and how it relates to inclusive practice. Current practitioners are used to support the delivery of this module.
