Module Overview
Additional Information	This module allows students to pursue a more in-depth study of two of the main criminal justice institutions. The Prison and Probation services occupy a central position in the Criminal Justice System of all developed nations. Much is known about these services, their administration, their effectiveness and their problems however the design and delivery surrounding their administration has remained the subject of intense debate and controversy throughout their history. Students will be encouraged to critically engage with these debates taking into consideration the theory, policy, and practice which surrounds community and custodial interventions.
