

Liverpool John Moores University

Title: Globalization and Health
Status: Definitive
Code: 6002PUBHEA (124904)
Version Start Date: 01-08-2021

Owning School/Faculty: Public Health Institute
Teaching School/Faculty: Public Health Institute

Team	Leader
Rose Khatri	Y
Padam Simkhada
Graeme Mitchell

Academic Level: FHEQ6      Credit Value: 20      Total Delivered Hours: 49
Total Learning Hours: 200      Private Study: 151

Delivery Options

Course typically offered: Semester 1

Component	Contact Hours
Lecture	24
Seminar	24

Grading Basis: 40 %

Assessment Details

Category	Short Description	Description	Weighting (%)	Exam Duration
Report	Report	3500 Word Report on the impact of globalization on public health	80
Exam	Exam	Online exam	20	1

Aims

This module explores the concept of globalization and its impact on population health and identifies the global strategic responses to these issues.

Learning Outcomes

After completing the module the student should be able to:

- 1 Examine the concept of globalization as an economic, political, technological and cultural process
- 2 Critically analyze the impact of globalization on population health
- 3 Critically evaluate international strategic responses and the role of international organisations in global public/environmental health risks

Learning Outcomes of Assessments

The assessment item list is assessed via the learning outcomes listed:

Report	1	2	3
Online exam	1

Outline Syllabus

What is globalization? Concept analysis and historical development of globalizing practices and trends

Dimensions of globalization: political, economic, technological and cultural

The impact of globalization on health and the environment

The role of international and transnational organisation in the response to global health problems

Global responses to public/environmental health risk

The role of international organisations in the strategic response to public/environmental health risk

Topics inc: Tobacco control, Food & Nutrition, Pollution, Global Warming, Sanitation, Water, Globesity, Alcohol, Pandemics

Learning Activities

Lectures; youtube style video discussion; group work, VLE activities; in class research activities with iPads

Notes

This module critically examines the phenomenon of globalization and the ways in which it impacts on the environment and public health. Globalization is examined from a number of dimensions: political, economic, technological and cultural. International policy and strategic responses to public/environmental health risks and impacts are critically evaluated.