Learning Activities

The module will be delivered through a combination of interactive lectures, which will be used as resource sessions for students, discussions, group tutorials, and directed study. The delivery methods are designed to foster practical skills of reflection. These will be supplemented by appropriate ICT to facilitate communication and learning. The students will be expected to link contemporary perspectives in mental health care to their experience in the workplace.

Notes

The module is designed to provide critical insight into the current and emerging state of health care.

It will introduce a variety of improvement strategies currently being employed in health and social care organisations.

The module will enable students to explore issues and perspectives in the context of mental health nursing and developments of contemporary nursing practice. These have a profound effect on patients and service users/carers and must be addressed by the practitioners of tomorrow.
