Outline Syllabus

The syllabus will include instruction in: how to present research in the context of a symposium; how to devise an overall theme to the event; organization and management of the event; devising roles and responsibilities; peer evaluation of roles and responsibilities.

Learning Activities

This module provides an opportunity for students to design, organise and host a Student Symposium at Tate Liverpool. Students will identify the topic, co-ordinate their papers, design a conference catalogue with biographies and synopses and make individual presentations on a related research topic. Formative Assessment will take place in the form of Peer evaluation.

Notes

This module offers students the opportunity to work collaboratively in order to devise, design and host a Symposium at Tate Liverpool. Students present their own research papers in the context of a group theme or set of themes.
