Learning Outcomes

Code	Number	Description
MLO1	1	Transfer and apply advanced creative skills and exercise significant judgement in the contexts of creating and delivering performance(s) as part of a season of work for public audiences.
MLO2	2	Analyse and apply the use of group processes in the creation of work including, for example, working collectively in an ensemble, co-creation and organisational structures.
MLO3	3	Effectively lead, facilitate, participate and problem solve within team working contexts.

Module Content

Outline Syllabus	A creative and practical module designed to facilitate each student with the opportunity to develop and work independently within an ensemble. Based on work undertaken in Production and Company Management and Advanced Theatre Practice 1 modules, students will organise, create and deliver a season of work as part of the department's annual Drama Festival. Students can choose to act, direct, write, take on a technical or administrative role towards the production of the Festival and will receive guidance from staff in developing their work.
Module Overview	This module is the cumulative point of application of skills and creative practice developed during the course, and provides a public platform for showing work. This creative and practical module is designed to give you the opportunity to develop and work independently with an ensemble.
Additional Information	The module is the cumulative point of application of skills and creative practice developed during the course, and provides a public platform for showing work.
