Report	AS1	Placement evaluation report evaluating the benefits gained from a placement, reflecting on the placement experience, assessing self-development during the placement, and analysing further self-development to improve employability.	100

Aims

To critically evaluate the benefits derived from a subject-related work placement.

Learning Outcomes

After completing the module the student should be able to:

- 1 Analyse the learning agreement negotiated for the placement.
- 2 Evaluate the benefits gained from the work experience and provide supporting evidence.
- 3 Critically assess the development of their own graduate skills and the practical experience of using them.
- 4 Critically reflect on their needs for further self-development to improve their own employability.

Learning Outcomes of Assessments

The assessment item list is assessed via the learning outcomes listed:

Placement evaluation	1	2	3	4
----------------------	---	---	---	---

Outline Syllabus

*Evaluation of the benefits gained from a placement,
Reflection on the placement experience,
Assessment of self-development during the placement,
Analysis of further self-development to improve employability.*

Learning Activities

Tutorials and group discussions to clarify the requirements of the evaluative report related to work experience.

Notes

This module allows students who have been on a subject-related work placement to critically assess the benefits gained from the experience in terms of the development of their graduate skills and subject-related skills, and to identify further self-development that would improve their employability.
