Learning Outcomes

Code	Number	Description
MLO1	1	Analyse behaviour in an applied context and evaluate its underlying causes
MLO2	2	Discuss the behavioural principles and techniques forming the background to animal management
MLO3	3	Critically evaluate relevant literature in Applied Animal Behaviour

Module Content

Outline Syllabus	The module highlights the importance of using knowledge of animal behaviour in a range of applied contexts. Topics will draw upon staff expertise and links with external organisations, and so are subject to availability, but may include training methods, reproduction, and the exhibition of different animal species. The range of contexts in which animals are studied may include zoos, aquaria, farms, and nature reserves.
Module Overview	This module provides an in-depth discussion of selected topical issues in animal behaviour. The module demonstrates how research in animal behaviour can be used to inform management of animals in a range of contexts.
Additional Information	The aims of the module will be partly met via interactions with professionals in the field of Applied Animal Behaviour, and provide specific opportunities for developing insight into careers in these fields.
