Aims

This module highlights the challenges of operating internationally in a global economy by comparing and contrasting international marketing theory based on developed economies with those of emerging markets and regional economies worldwide. Students are taught the key ideological and political philosophies that exist internationally and are given an indication of emerging markets and their position in the global economy. The complexity and marketing challenges are reinforced using student-directed exploration, research, analysis and evaluation in groups of designated emerging markets.

Learning Outcomes

After completing the module the student should be able to:

- 1 Review and analyse advanced/emerging markets theories in relation to cultural change and its significance in terms of international marketing and globalisation.
- 2 Analyse the key characteristics of the major emerging markets and economic regions in the world
- 3 Critically analyse and evaluate the political, economic, social, legal and technological environments
- 4 Formulate and justify the emerging markets development in relation to political and economic viewpoints.
