Aims

To develop the ability of students to analyse and interpret a complex body of legal knowledge in a coherent manner and to present high order legal research and writing skills.

Learning Outcomes

After completing the module the student should be able to:

- 1 Identify a valid research question.
- 2 Conduct the independent research necessary to answer that question.
- 3 Synthesize and critically analyse the research materials into an argument framed by their question.
- 4 Present that synthesis in a coherently structured way.

Learning Outcomes of Assessments

The assessment item list is assessed via the learning outcomes listed:

10,000 words dissertation    1       2       3       4

Outline Syllabus

Develop a research question

Conduct substantial independent research

Produce a final dissertation

Learning Activities

1 introductory session in October with the module leader on research planning and methodology.

1 Session with the module leader on dissertation writing in January.

Approximately 8 Meetings with supervisor throughout the year.

Notes

The Dissertation module will allow students to undertake an extended look at a legal subject of interest to them, to locate within the existing body of literature, and to conduct independent research, producing a written argument.

Students will submit a draft idea in the year prior to study and a supervisor identified.

Each successful proposal will be allocated a supervisor and full support will be available throughout the process.
