Aims

To equip students with knowledge and understanding of event impacts and related theoretical perspectives and how these impacts may be assessed and managed.

Learning Outcomes

After completing the module the student should be able to:

- 1 Demonstrate critical awareness of the impacts and legacies of events.
- 2 Evaluate theoretical perspectives of event impacts and legacies.
- 3 Apply theory related to event impacts to a chosen event context.
- 4 Demonstrate knowledge about and understanding of how event impacts can be measured, analysed and effectively managed to maximise the positive and minimising potential negative consequences of the event.

Learning Outcomes of Assessments

The assessment item list is assessed via the learning outcomes listed:

Presentation	1	2	3
Report	3	4

Outline Syllabus

Event impacts and legacies, stakeholder analysis, impact assessment, recovery and regeneration strategies.

Learning Activities

The module will be delivered by means of lectures followed by workshops and/or seminars. Here students will participate in small group discussions based around material presented in the lectures using prescribed reading and case studies.
