Aims

- 1. To examine critically the intellectual and practical background to the concept of corporate governance in the U.K. and elsewhere*
- 2. To demonstrate the legal and extra-legal solutions to perceived problems with past and present corporate governance regimes*
- 3. To critically examine proposed future developments in and monitoring of corporate governance compliance*

Learning Outcomes

Notes

This module seeks to introduce students to the intellectual and practical background to the concept of corporate governance in the UK and elsewhere. In particular, the module is concerned with the legal and extra-legal processes by which corporations are governed. The module aims to provide students with an awareness and understanding of corporate governance through the critical examination of appropriate theoretical perspectives, models and practices for developing and monitoring corporate governance compliance.
