Learning Outcomes

Code	Number	Description
MLO1	1	Generate a documentary idea, with a view to developing as a practical project on a media platform of choice
MLO2	2	Understand all aspects of production research, including generating production paperwork
MLO3	3	Understand how to conduct a successful pitch of their final idea

Module Content

Outline Syllabus	The emphasis of this module is developing research skills to produce original and in-depth material for a chosen subject area. Students will identify a documentary idea they wish to develop as their final masters documentary. Once agreed with tutors, students will research and develop this documentary idea to produce a comprehensive written treatment and deliver a professional pitch of their research proposal to tutor staff and industry practitioners. This module is designed to equip students with the research skills required in order to deliver their final masters project.
Module Overview
Additional Information	Working to a brief negotiated with the module staff, students will conduct detailed production research in order to produce a comprehensive treatment of their final project. Students will be required to submit risk assessments and other relevant pre-production paperwork. The research will culminate in the successful preparation and delivery of a professional pitch of their idea This is a core module
