After completing the module the student should be able to:

Learning Outcomes

Code	Number	Description
MLO1	1	Formulate research aims and relevant questions, and devise and implement appropriate means of conducting research (empirical or theoretical).
MLO2	2	Demonstrate an awareness and critical understanding of relevant theoretical and / or empirical work in relation to the chosen research topic.
MLO3	3	Clearly present and critically analyse research findings.
MLO4	4	Synthesise findings and draw conclusions around the research question.

Module Content

Outline Syllabus	Students will be expected to understand the nature of research, the responsibility of the researcher and the role of the supervisor. After an introductory workshop at the start of the programme there will be individual tutorials with subject-specialist staff that will seek to support students with their research projects. Students will be required to present regular written work to their supervisor for discussion as this will enable them to receive formative feedback on their progress throughout the module.
Module Overview	This module aims to provide an opportunity for you to integrate the skills, knowledge, theory and practice that have been learned in the previous modules. You will design, plan and conduct a research project either as an empirical project or as a theoretical study.
