Category	Short Description	Description	Weighting (%)	Exam Duration
Report	AS1	Reflective Report (5000 words)	100

Aims

*This module will enable students to:
Critically explore the diversity of approaches taken to organising and providing education across Europe and beyond. This will be achieved through both academic study and practical experience.*

Learning Outcomes

After completing the module the student should be able to:

- 1 Critically analyse the organisation and management of education across Europe
- 2 Critically reflect on the relationship between local culture and educational practice
- 3 Critically analyse the extent to which policy is reflected in practice at the chosen placement.

Learning Outcomes of Assessments

The assessment item list is assessed via the learning outcomes listed:

Reflective Report	1	2	3

Outline Syllabus

The uses of education

Education and the state

Characteristics of individual systems

Relevant placement experience

Education and social stratification

The status of teachers

Perspectives on teaching, learning, and assessment

Learning Activities

Lectures and seminars including discussion and analysis of research studies and literature.

Notes

It would normally be expected that students gain practical experience in an international education context by undertaking a two-month work placement, either supported by the Erasmus+ programme or with a non-European partner.
