Learning Activities

This module will draw on a range of teaching methods that involve students in the learning process. Teaching methods include guided reading, lectures, group work, case discussion and presentations.

Notes

The student will have the opportunity to relate academic teaching to their first year placement and will have the opportunity to reflect on a range of theories, values and ethics in relation to social work practice.

Students will also be directed to a number of other sources including core journals such as the British Journal of Social Work, Journal of Social Work, Journal of Social Policy, Disability and Society, International Journal of disability, Ageing and Society, Journal of ageing studies, Ethics and Social Welfare.

All individual assessments must be passed in order to achieve an overall pass on the module.

The module has been mapped to the knowledge and skills statements (child and family social work and social workers in adult services)

The University acknowledges that there may be occasions when a student's performance in assessment may be severely affected by unforeseen or unexpected circumstances. Such events include sudden acute illness or close personal bereavement. Any extension requests must be discussed with the Module leader prior to the submission date.
