Learning Outcomes

Code	Number	Description
MLO1	1	Demonstrate the ability to undertake a sustained piece of research on a topic of their choice;
MLO2	2	Display knowledge of relevant primary material and a body of critical and theoretical work appropriate to the field of study and representative of research in the field generally;
MLO3	3	Evaluate and contextualise critical and theoretical writing relevant to their chosen topic.

Module Content

Outline Syllabus	Students will meet with their supervisor to discuss the dimensions of the project, identify and address key scholarship in the field, develop an appropriate methodology and establish an agreed framework for progress. This module assesses the ability to present, in scholarly form, a sustained piece of research which demonstrates knowledge and understanding of a relevant field, methodologies and critical context, organizes material into a clear and relevant argument, and shows the ability to work independently. The module will be structured by a series of formative assessments before the final dissertation assessment point. These will include a proposal, bibliography and draft chapters, considered and discussed with the designated supervisor.
Module Overview	The dissertation assesses your ability to present, in scholarly form, a sustained piece of research which demonstrates knowledge and understanding of a relevant field, methodologies and critical context, organises material into a clear and relevant argument, and shows the ability to work independently.
