Aims and Outcomes

Aims	The module will focus on EU measures adopted in the criminal area which falls within the scope of Justice and Home Affairs. The module intends to analyse criminal procedure, mutual recognition, substantive criminal law, jurisdiction, coordination between law enforcement authorities of EU Member States and prosecution; policing and security. We will also examine the scope of EU criminal law which includes cross-border crimes such as international terrorism, illicit traffic of drugs, trafficking in human beings. The aim of the module is also to cover the post-Brexit relationship between the EU and the UK on the basis of new agreements that will be concluded between them. At the end of the module, students will choose a topic of their preference and write a 5,000 coursework where they will have to show to be able to connect the different topics with each other and critically analyse them.
