After completing the module the student should be able to:

Learning Outcomes

Code	Number	Description
MLO1	1	Critically evaluate and analyse complex connections, structures and frameworks within the professional work environment.
MLO2	2	Systematically examine and evaluate the landscape of the Music, Entertainment & broad Performing Arts industries.
MLO3	3	Evaluate methods of investigation and develop robust approaches to applied work as research.
MLO4	4	Analyse evidence of music industry and, if appropriate, other creative industry processes and succinctly detail the key conclusions and ideas.
MLO5	5	Self-reflect in a critically rigorous manner and apply the conclusions to career planning and development.

Module Content

Outline Syllabus	The module will consider a range of professional environments and industry focussed frameworks in order to analyse the global music economy and the role of creative, technical, economic and technological processes within that economy. It will examine ways in which work orientated research can engender and reveal professional practise, creative thinking and operational dynamics. The module will also consider various methods and paradigms for carrying out work-based research. Notions of personal development in the context of practical investigation and the demands of the industry will also be considered.
